RULES FOR NEXT DRAFT ANNOUNCED

Married Men Not Exempt in Next Call--
9,000,000 Will Be Compelled to Fill
Out the Questionnaire

(By Associated Press)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 14.—The five classes into which the 9,000,000 men in the United States will be classed when called for military service, is officially announced in the Provost Marshal general's questionnaire just completed.

Every man in the country eligible for military service will be compelled to fill out one of the blanks and then return the same to his district board headquarters.

The statement some time ago that married men would be exempt in the next call was denied in the questionnaire. Married men with dependent wives and children will be placed far down on the eligible list.

After the questionnaires have been returned to the local board the men in class one will be sorted out. It is stated that these men will be the ones that will be called first. It is expected that they will be the only ones called unless in case of extreme necessity. Legal and medical advisory boards are being appointed in all districts. Registrants will receive free advice from the boards and will be assisted in filling out their blanks.

The questions on dependents are framed so as to meet all circumstances and bring out all information of value to the exemption boards. This information will be the consideration of the board in placing the men in their respective classes.

Each registrant will receive one of the questionnaires and will be compelled to fill it out and return the same to his local board within seven days.

After filling out the inside pages of the questionnaire the registrant will then place the class to which he thinks he belongs in a space prepared on the front. If the board agrees that the man has placed his right class on the blank there will be no further action until he is called for physical examination.

KERENSKY'S FORCES AGAIN IN COMMAND OF RUSSIA

A Small Sector of Petrograd is the Only Part of the Country Yet to Be Taken

SPY CAPTURED

New Castle Is Excited Over Alleged Discovery.

Under Army Guard.

There is much expressed excitement in certain circles at New Castle over the marching of a private from Fort Stark to Fort Constitution. The story is that a German spy had been unearthed in the uniform of an American. He is said to have enlisted last summer and he claimed to have served in the Belgian army. It is said that he had certain papers and documents in his quarters. When placed under arrest he was on guard duty. He is well known in Portsmouth.

London, Nov. 14.—Dispatches from the Finnish Telegraphic Bureau state that Premier Kerensky's troops are in command of the whole of Russia with the exception of a small sector of the city of Petrograd, which dispatches indicate will soon be in the hands of the former ruler's forces.

Premier Kerensky is reported to be in Petrograd and taking personal command of his troops and directing movements that will effect the capture of the city.

Very little hope is maintained by the Maximalists that they will be able to stop the onslaught of the Kerensky forces. This is regarded as apparent by the fact that the latter are meeting with little opposition in their attacks of today.

It is intimated that the troops that took command of the capital a few days ago made a desperate effort to hold the city, but under overwhelming conditions they have now been forced into a small sector of Petrograd and have very little if any chance to escape.

Street fighting occurred at intervals during the night and were renewed with greater violence today, according to the advices.

Hatch of Portsmouth and George S. Hughes appear for the railroad. Ralph C. Gray of Portsmouth and John Scammon of Exeter for Foss.

MORE U. S. MEN IN THE TRENCHES

Broken Ranks Show Dead, Wounded and Captured.

(By Associated Press)
With the American Army in France, Nov. 14.—The second detachment of American troops that have served in the trenches have been relieved by the third detachment and have returned to their billets.

The release of the second Americans from the trenches was effected on a bright starlit night says the statements from the front.

Included in the troops returning with the second detachment is the company that bore the brunt of the first German attack. An occasional break in the lines mark the places of the men that were killed, wounded and captured in the first action.

As the company was dismissed and went dashing off through the mud an officer standing close by said, "There goes the scrappiest bunch of soldiers in Europe. They are just waiting to get a chance to repay the Germans for the loss of their comrades and, believe me, they will before this war is over."

GEO. B. FRENCH CO.

WIN THE WAR

We fear many people do not realize that the War Fund now being raised is regarded by President Wilson, General Pershing, the French military authorities, the Italian military authorities and the English military authorities, as just as important and indispensable to victory as arms and ammunition. The work which is done under the name of the Red Triangle is to prevent the boys, your boys, our own boys, who have gone to France and are going to France to live day and night, week after week, in the deep, damp, wet and cold trenches, from becoming despondent, losing their spirit, losing their hope, and becoming insane. The Red Triangle, with its men in khaki, carry their huts and their work right up to the firing line, lug coffee to our boys when they are going "over the top," and help carry them back wounded and dead. They even dig Y. M. C. A. cellars 25 feet underground connected with the trenches, so as to give the boys a dry place to get together and warm their feet and write a letter to mother just before going "over the top" to their death. It is this kindness and encouragement which keeps the spirit in the boys and makes them willing to do the awful sacrifice. It cannot be possible that there is a man, woman or child in this patriotic old city who isn't willing to give something, however small, to such a necessary work as this, to such a humane work as this, and to a work Gen. Bell says the war can never be won without. One reason the great Italian army of boys in the Alps, were so easily routed is because those boys after two desperate and dreary years in those lonely mountains, without this kind of work to encourage them, had lost all their spirit. Arms and ammunition are of no value whatsoever unless the boys have the spirit and courage to take them and face death. Can't we do this for our boys, our own boys, and help give them spirit to stick it out and brave it out until they win a victory over the Kaiser, who is bent on slaughtering us all like cattle, if by any possibility he is able to do so?

The collectors are around town to see us all. Let us forget and forgive any petty differences, realizing that it is a million times more important that we prevent the arch enemy of everything that is decent in the world from crushing civilization.

JOHN H. BARTLETT, County Chairman.

FEED PACIFISTS RAW MEAT, GERARD URGES

Pittsburg, Penn., Nov. 14.—The time for repentance of disloyal Americans and pro-German sympathizers has passed and the day is at hand when every person must decide whether he is for or against America, declared James W. Gerard, former American ambassador to Germany in an address at a food conservation mass meeting here today.

"Americans are to be congratulated on their efforts to induce Germans in this country to be loyal, but there are still many under the protection of the American flag who are snakes in the grass," said the ex-ambassador.

"We should hog-tie every disloyal German American, feed every pacifist raw meat and hang every traitor to a lamp post to assure success in this war. And our traitors are not all German-Americans, but some men high in public life are aiding the Prussian cause. There is no dirtier chapter in American politics than the crusade of these men, whose names you know."

IN-MEMORIAM

In the death of Leon C. Webber, which occurred at Manchester, N. H., last Thursday, many a heart has been saddened, for not only was this young man a favorite in his home town of Kittery, but he had created a large circle of friends and acquaintances in both Exeter, Me., and Manchester, where he was employed up to his untimely end. His future prospects were indeed bright, and very pathetic was the fact that only just previous to his fatal illness he received a notice from the management to assume full charge of the plant as a reward for his incessant, untiring efforts and extreme efficiency. Mr. Webber was very fond of music, in fact on his last day he summoned his loved ones to his bedside and feebly sang to them. He possessed a winning manner, was always joyful and was never content until he made others happy.

He was the recipient of a beautifully decorated birthday cake, encircled with 19 lighted tapers, from the hostess; 19 beautiful carnations from Contractor Colby and Mrs. Colby and a shower of cards.

Bates, chairman of the local Y. M. C. A., completed arrangements with the other members, and Lawrence K. Hawes, secretary of the Rockingham county Y. M. C. A., has been busy sending literature and instructions to the neighboring towns. Yesterday Principal Dr. Lewis Perry of the Phillips Exeter academy addressed the students of the Portsmouth high school on the Y. M. C. A. fund.

The Rockingham County Farmers' association has recently received a carload of 103 Western cattle, which will be distributed throughout the county at cost. They are now quartered at the Whitcomb farm in Stratham and were yesterday examined by Dr. Haven T. Fred G. Bergeron has moved his family into the Bond house at the corner of Oak and Forest street.

Arthur S. French has on exhibition in his store window an old-fashioned

MOTOR FIRE TRUCK ENDS ITS CAREER

Dover, N. H., Nov. 14.—After two years of almost continuous trouble with the motor fire truck brought in September, 1915, for the central fire station, Fire Chief James Smith yesterday condemned the truck and had it removed from the station. He notified Acting Mayor Alonzo G. Willard of his action and added that if the city expected him to fight fires it must supply him with suitable apparatus.

Acting Mayor Willard immediately called a special meeting of the city council to consider the situation.

The fire truck which early in its career began to show fatal weaknesses, was dubbed the "Screaming Lizzie." Several changes have been made in it by its makers, it has sustained a number of broken axles and only a short time ago was laid up in an auto hospital in Boston for about a month. It now has a broken crank shaft, which put the truck out of commission when going to a fire Saturday morning.

RED CROSS PERFECT REORGANIZATION

Change from a Branch to a Chapter
With Enlarged Territory. Col. H. C.
Taylor the New Chairman

The reorganization of the local Red Cross from a Branch to a Chapter, with a greatly enlarged territory, was perfected at a meeting held at the Elks' Home on Tuesday afternoon.

The local society originally established as a Branch of the New Hampshire Chapter found that it could work to a much better advantage as a Chapter by itself and in accordance with the wishes of the New England section, it was voted to change to a chapter.

In the reorganization, the plan followed by the most successful chapter of New England was adopted, that is a small executive committee, which includes the heads of all departments or committees and a large and representative Advisory Board.

The organization as perfected is:
Chairman—H. C. Taylor.
Secretary—Mrs. Wallis D. Walker.
Treasurer—J. M. Washburn.
Finance Committee—J. P. Conner.
Workroom—Mrs. Arthur H. Locke.
Civilian Relief—Frederick M. Sise.
Publicity—R. D. McDonough.
Membership—E. Curtis Matthews.
The heads of the various departments will appoint their own committees which will be announced at a later date and also the Advisory Board which is being perfected.

The work room committee of which

Mrs. A. H. Locke is the chairman, plans to greatly enlarge the work and it is possible that the workrooms on the second floor of the Elks' Home may be kept open, instead of two days a week as at present, four or even six days a week. There is still plenty of room for workers in this department, either in the surgical dressing department, for which there is a great demand, or in the sewing, or knitting branches of the work. Women are cordially invited to take part in this great work.

The Civilian Relief Department has already accomplished considerable work and the indications are that this branch of the work will also be greatly increased, as the cases are becoming more frequent.

A vote of thanks was extended to the employees of the Rockingham hotel for their benefit dance at the hotel at which they secured $266 a very fine sum.

The work of the Junior Red Cross, which is, as its name implies, an organization for Red Cross work among the children of the schools was left to a committee consisting of Miss Mildred, principal of the Farragut school, Miss Morrison of the Lafayette and Miss McDaniel of the Haven school.

The Red Cross tuberculosis Christmas stamps sale, was left to a special committee of three to be appointed by the chairman. These stamps will be placed on sale before Christmas in the stores, banks and clubs.

The Portsmouth Chapter is to include all of the surrounding towns, which will be branches of the Portsmouth chapter instead of the state chapter, as the National organization favors the smaller divisions of the work and at the present time New Hampshire is the only state having a state chapter.

The Elks have generously given the entire second floor of their Home for the work room and it makes a most attractive place for such work. The officers of the Elks have notified the committee that if the second floor and a room on the third floor is not large enough then they will devote more of the building to this work.

There is a great need of more members, as this city should have at least 2000 members. The membership dues are small, only $1 a year and at that sum a person can hardly afford not to hold a membership in this greatest of all war work.

The workroom committee have furnished sweaters, and other knitted goods for all of the members of the local company coast artillery, and for all of the drafted men in this district who had not secured sweaters at Ayer, and they have enough for the next quota who will go to Ayer from this city.

ITALIANS REPULSE REPEATED ATTACKS

(By Associated Press)

The Italians are apparently holding their own against the Teutonic allies on the curvo line front from Lake Garda to the Adriatic sea. Small gains on the northern front and at some points on the Piave are reported.

At the Asiago plateau where it was feared that the Germans would break through the Italians have offered stubborn resistance and are still holding their own. At Canova, so brilliantly executed was the movements of Gen. Diaz men that they not only drove the Italians back but were able to liberate many Italian prisoners captured.

The Germans claim that they have captured Fontana and Mt. Longoro. On the southern Piave the enemy have crossed the river and took a bridge head, but the Italians in a counter attack broke their back across the river. Every precaution is being taken to protect Venice and its historic buildings from ruthless bombardment by the Germans. All of the valuable paintings and statues have been removed to a place of safety.

Keep a Pig—If You Can.

Interest in the "keep a pig" movement recently suggested by Food Administrator Hoover has reached New Hampshire and what the outcome will be remains to be seen. There is no doubt that more pigs would be a blessing to the country at a time when fats and meats of all kinds are in such demand, but in this as in all things there is the question of ways and means to be considered. Mere willingness to keep a pig does not keep one. Pigs are hearty eaters and people who keep them must be prepared to feed generously or be disturbed by squealing compared with which that over the high cost of living sinks into insignificance.

Nevertheless the question is worthy of attention and it is well that it is being taken up in this state. The extension department of the State College has asked the livestock committee of the New Hampshire Food Administration for light on the subject, and the committee answers by recommending that the "keep a pig" movement be instituted in this state at once, and that it be given the widest possible publicity in order to bring it to the attention of all of the citizens. It is now expected that the extension department of the college will appeal to the farmers to breed and fatten more pigs, and the same course will doubtless be recommended to suburbanites who are not engaged in farming, but many of whom could keep one or more pigs on their little places.

One of the chief obstacles to this program just now is the high price of grain, which is indispensable to the proper fattening of a pig. A record breaking crop of corn has been raised this year, and yet the price is so high that the average man will be led to think twice before engaging in hog farming. It is true that pork and pork products of all kinds are also high, as they cannot fail to be while grain remains at present prices. Yet there is one important fact to be considered. In practically every home there is waste which could be fed to hogs with profit, consequently the keeping of pigs wherever this is practicable would be a strong stroke in the line of food conservation. In many cities much has already been done toward the judicious collection and use of garbage as feed for hogs, and this is a step in the right direction. Under the present pressure it might be proper for cities and towns to have less stringent regulations regarding the keeping of pigs, which has been discouraged by law in many places where pigs could be kept without injury to any one.

If the "keep a pig" program is to be seriously considered all of these things must be taken into account. It is well that the question in this state is in a way to receive the attention it deserves, and if the agitation results in more and cheaper pork, so much the better for all concerned.

One "drive" follows another in rapid succession these days. The latest is for Y. M. C. A. work in the army, at home and abroad, and New Hampshire's quota of the $35,000,000 to be raised is $300,000. There is no questioning of the merit and value of this work, and it remains for those to give who can.

The community in which real estate moves freely is not standing still. And that real estate in this city is moving is shown by the record published in this paper a few days ago. The new shipyard at Newington and the great activity at the navy yard are doing a great deal for Portsmouth.

The local aerie of Eagles has a proud representation in the army and navy, one half of its members—an even 100 men—being in the service, while more than half of those at home are employed at the navy yard. The members of this organization are certainly "American Eagles."

Storer Post, G. A. R., has reached its 50th anniversary, and the most ardent wish of its remaining members is that they were young enough to get into the present mix-up. They are long past the age of active service, but their hearts, like our flag, are still there.

Henry Ford will build no more pleasure cars during the war, but will devote his great plant to the production of war necessities. For a man who started out to pacify the world Mr. Ford has become a most valiant warrior.

Newfoundland is greatly relieved by the privilege of fighting up at night, a privilege that has been denied for some months as a war measure. There are bright spots as well as dark ones in the present situation.

Those who appear to be in the best position to judge stick to it that the end of the war is a long way off. And there is reason to fear that they are right.

SUPT. J. N. PRINGLE'S RESIGNATION ACCEPTED

Will Leave Portsmouth to Become Deputy State Superintendent of Public Instruction. New Calendar Year Adopted for Schools

Superintendent James N. Pringle has resigned as superintendent of the schools of this city to accept a position as Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction, to succeed Mr. Butterfield who has been promoted to take State Superintendent H. C. Morrison's place.

The resignation as presented by Mr. Pringle, taken effect on January 15 at the beginning of the school financial year, and it was accepted with regret by the members of the Board of Instruction at their regular monthly meeting last evening.

A special committee consisting of Messrs. Thayer, Towle and Gooding was appointed to meet candidates and to nominate a man to succeed Mr. Pringle.

The special committee who have been considering the plan for changing the school calendar reported favorably to the plan offered by Mr. Pringle at the last meeting and this was adopted to take effect at once.

Under the new plan there is a more even distribution of four terms and it is so arranged, that only two weeks in the entire year are broken by holidays, the vacation, separating the terms taking in the holidays. The calendar is as follows:

First Term—September 10 to November 23, 1917.

Second Term—December 3 to February 16, 1918.

Third Term—February 25 to April 13, 1918.

Fourth Term—April 22 to June 20, 1918.

Christmas recess—December 24 to January 2.

Under a suspension of the rules it was voted to allow the school children to contribute once a month for the children's army of Relief for the destitute children of the war lands.

The following new teachers were elected:

Miss Ruth Sloughton, a graduate of the Framingham Normal school and for several years teacher of domestic arts, was elected to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Miss Symonds.

Harley M. Prescott of Rumford, a graduate of the Gorham Normal school was elected as a manual training teacher.

Supt. Pringle reported that at the close of the school Nov. 2 there were 2208 scholars enrolled and since that time there has been twenty more added.

Supt. Pringle has been at the head of the Portsmouth schools for the past five years and he has been one of the most valuable men that the city has ever had. His resignation was received with regret not only by the school board but by the citizens in general.

In accepting his new position he broadens his work.

LOCAL COUPLE OBSERVE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Well Known Couple Quietly Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Smith, prominent Portsmouth folks, quietly observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home, 65 Rogers street, today.

Only the immediate members of the family were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Smith and their daughter, Mrs. Henrietta Smith Jenkins. The two sons, Louis J. Smith of this city and Wallis L. Smith of Providence, R. I., were unable to attend.

Early in the day cards and telegrams of congratulations began to arrive. Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith were as happy as they were fifty years ago today, when married.

Mr. Smith was born in Newington, a son of William and Emily (Knight) Smith. When 15 he enlisted in the 1st Massachusetts Heavy Artillery and served through the Civil War. He engaged in the grocery business here for nearly 40 years. He is a past commander of Storer Post, G. A. R.; past noble grand of Piscataqua Lodge, I. O. O. PRESIDENT MAY ACT IN RAILROAD WAGE INCREASE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 14.—President Wilson will confer with the four chiefs of railroad brotherhoods relative to the proposed increase of wages demanded by the conductors and the brakemen on every railroad in the U. S. The meeting has been set for Nov. 26.

With the announcement of this conference it was disclosed that President Wilson while he hopes to settle the differences by arbitration, he does not intend to have the railroads go on strike at this critical time, even if the government has to assume control of the railroads in the United States.

Judge William W. Chambers, head of the federal board of mediation and conciliation, was in conference with the delegates from the railroads today.

So far, it is intimated that the railroad men are not in favor of the government's proposal.

BELGIUM WILL BE WITHOUT TREES

Paris, Nov. 14.—It will be a treeless Belgium to which the people of that unfortunate country will return, if its invaders are not driven out before they have completed their work of devastation. Factories have been despoiled of their machinery, every form of property has been requisitioned, and now woods, forests and even individual trees are being cut down wholesale. The wooded heights of the Belgian Ardennes, which used to protect the center of the country from east winds, are rapidly being denuded, the tall elms that lined the high-roads and canals have been felled, and walnut trees that adorned the gardens of the well-to-do in Brussels have not been spared.

In the early days of the occupation, the Belgian State Forest Department was allowed to supervise the work of felling and see that it was scientifically conducted, but after a few months, the Germans took over the direction of the Department and observed only one rule—to obtain the greatest amount of wood for military purposes in the shortest possible time.

The Belgian government has been able to learn details of the work done, such as that a thousand acres have been cleared in the Hertogenwald (Liege) and felling continues there, the fir plantation "Fays de Luy" the finest in the country, has been completely razed, and the magnificent forest of Soignes, south of Brussels, is rapidly disappearing. These are only examples of dozens of similar cases which are known and to this devastation must be added the consumption of wood by the native population which for three years has been unable to import any and has had to use quantities instead of coal.

Serious consequences from every point of view, health, climate and hydrographic, are expected from this wide-spread destruction of woods and forests, if it continues another year or two.

CASTLE SQUARE THEATRE.

The distinguishing note struck by the programs now offered at the Castle Square Theatre, Boston, is the refinement of the quality of entertainment. Its new policy of motion picture bills has proved most popular mainly because of the great care exercised in the choice of subjects, and the fact that they are shown in ideal manner.

For the coming week the concert program will include "Lora May Lamport, soprano, who will sing 'Poor Wandering One' and 'Thinking of You,' and selections by the Quaker Quartette. On the screen there will be shown new pictures, a Mutt & Jeff comedy cartoon film, a travel picture, a film comedy and the feature photograph, 'Barbarian Sheep,' picturing the stage's beautiful dramatic star, Elsie Ferguson in the screened version of Robert Hichens' famous novel of the same title. It is an intensely romantic tale with many scenes of the warm Orient, following the adventures of the wife of an English nobleman who neglects her for the pleasures of the hunt. She goes with him to Northern Africa, and there develops a series of adventures which carry her into the desert where she meets with an Arab chief whom she fascinates, and leads to a climax stirring in the extreme. Miss Ferguson graces the role with her artistry and extreme beauty.

The last half of the week will bring an entire change of bill in concert numbers and screen offerings. The feature photoplay will be Douglas Fairbanks in 'The Lamb.'

Seats at this theatre are reserved for every performance, and subscription seats may be ordered for the entire season.

RED TRIANGLE CAMPAIGN NOW ON

Teams Today Will Begin Drive for $10,000 This City's Quota of Big War Fund

The real campaign for Portsmouth's quota of the national war fund of the Red Triangle (Y. M. C. A.) begins in earnest today, although some work was started yesterday.

A meeting of the team captains with Campaign Manager Frederick M. Sise was held Tuesday afternoon at which time the business section of the city was divided into districts and assigned to each captain.

In the evening there was a meeting of the captains and the members of the teams and a general plan outlined by Mr. Sise and a general discussion as to the work to be done.

It was a very enthusiastic meeting, every man optimistic that not only the quota of $8000 would be secured but that at least $10,000 would be the goal of the committee.

The teams will start active work this forenoon and it will give everybody in the district an opportunity to subscribe for this great war fund.

The navy yard will be in charge of Mr. Amos S. Rundlett, who will perfect his own organization for this work.

A thermometer has been placed on the National Mechanics and Traders Bank building and it is set for $10,000 and it will be moved up each day as the sums are reported. Each team captain will report every forenoon to Secretary Baker of the Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce and his office will be made the headquarters of this committee.

A committee of ladies will make a canvas of the residential district, outside of the districts laid down for the teams.

The team captains and their members are:

J. P. Connor, captain; L. G. Peyser, L. W. Ewald, F. W. Randall, H. W. Peyser and Frederick Gardner.

Fred A. Gray, captain; R. P. Margeson, E. L. Paterson, Harry W. Wendell, F. A. Belden.

H. O. Prime, captain; Dr. F. S. Towle, Thomas H. Palmer, Harry S. Caswell, M. J. Griffin Jr., Harold M. Smith.

R. L. Costello, captain; R. C. Margeson, C. A. Low, Raphael Paola, Willard Drake, D. A. Clark and R. D. McDonough.

R. C. Dickey, captain; D. F. Borthwick, W. J. Cater, C. H. Walker and E. L. Chaney.

Col. H. C. Taylor, Gate Shoe Co. Mr. H. B. Tilton, Morley Dutton Co. Amos S. Rundlett, Navy Yard.

Louis Shapiro and Harry Cohen, Jewish merchants.

Yesterday afternoon some of the teams made a small start and they were greatly encouraged by their reception. This is a good cause, every dollar you give goes to make the lot of the soldier and sailor, either here or in France, a happier and cleaner one. Give and give generously.

THIRD SERIES OF AMER. TROOPS IN TRENCHES

(By Associated Press)

With the American Army in France, Nov. 14—The second American detachments to enter the trenches have returned to their billets. The relief was accomplished successfully and without the knowledge of the Germans. The third series of battalions now is occupying the first line, having marched in on a brilliant starlight night.

Among the returned troops is the company which bore the brunt of the raid on the trenches by German shock troops. The battalions in the trenches had a good taste of shellfire during the first hours, the Germans using their artillery more heavily than usual and continuing steadily and the American batteries replying energetically. There has been active patrolling in No Man's Land by the Americans, and the enemy, but no clash between the patrols has so far been reported.

HAVE WOMEN'S Y. M. C. A. TEAM

There is also a women's team in the field working for the Y. M. C. A. fund, captained by Miss Martha Kimball, with Mrs. Fred A. Gray, Mrs. Thomas Cummings, Mrs. B. L. Patterson, Mrs. J. Manning Akerman, and Miss Daisy Bennett as workers.

There will be a mass meeting of women at the Y. M. C. A. Association hall, on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Several speakers will address the meeting and there will be musical selections rendered. Every effort is being made to bring clearly to the minds of the people the great importance of this Red Triangle work and the fact that the Y. M. C. A. workers bring to the boys in the trenches and in the training camps many of the comforts which they enjoyed at home and which were not for these workers would not be available to them.

K. OF C. HOLD WHIST PARTY

The Knights of Columbus gave a successful whist and dancing party in their home on Islington street on Tuesday evening.

Fifteen tables were in play. The whist party was followed by dancing until midnight. Music was furnished by Doolittle and May.

THE COLONIAL CHANGE OF PROGRAM

The vaudeville makes a complete change of program at the Colonial Thursday with a series of new acts among them being the big time musical comedy tabloid with the Eight Liberty Bells, Dave Glaver, the funster, and a rollicking duo of modern vaudevillians in Gess and Newlands.

The pictures tomorrow will include Petrova in the five part Metro entitled, "To the Death," and a Pathé News, besides a fine two-part comedy of the Christie make. The pictures change again on Friday with Fannie Ward coming in a new Paramount entitled, "The Unconquered."

TRAINMEN ASK FOR $109,000,000 MORE

New York, Nov. 14—Demands for wage increases averaging 42 per cent are involved in a secret vote being taken this week by conductors and brakemen on all railroads in the U. S. It was learned in railroad circles here today. Advance copies of the demands have been received by Eastern railroad officials and it was explained that the vote now being taken is preliminary to a strike vote.

It is estimated that the increase asked for the lines east of Chicago would amount to $48,000,000 a year. It was pointed out that the payroll of eastern roads is 44 per cent of the national payroll for conductors and brakemen which would mean an aggregate increase throughout the country of $100,000,000.

According to the information given railway officials the men in the movement include 32,000 passenger train employees, 85,000 freight men and 53,000 yard men.

The demands are said to involve mileage rate increases of from 20.6 per cent for conductors to 51.5 per cent for baggage men. It is proposed to raise the minimum monthly basis for conductors from $135 to $162.90 and for baggage men from $82.50 to $116.40.

In through freight service the conductors ask for an increase in the mileage rates of 32.1-2 per cent, and the brakemen 42.7 per cent. Local freight conductors demand an increase of 25.9 per cent in their mileage rates. The demands for yard conductors and brakemen involve an increase of 41 per cent in daily rates of pay.

POLICE BAN DISPLAY OF WAR-JOTTED U. S. FLAG

Watertown, Mass., Nov. 14—The Slamin of Natick, Young Slamin enlisted in the Canadian army in Quebec in 1915. He has been in five big battles, carried the flag in a pocket yesterday, on the ground that public exhibition amounted to desecration because of writing on it, in spite of the fact that the writing consisted of the proud notes of a soldier who carried it through five battles in France.

The flag is the property of Sgt. Frederick H. Slamin, son of James, London hospital suffering from shell wounds in his shoulder. He has undergone two operations for removal of pieces of shell and will have to submit to another. He sent the much prized flag and other crests to his aunt, Mrs. Mary Slamin of Watertown who with patriotic spirit and believing they would help stimulate recruiting, placed them on exhibition in the Simmons drug store.

Patrolman John Mcnamara saw the articles in the window yesterday and advised the proprietor of the store that the flag had been desecrated by writing on it and that it should be removed. The druggist complied with the request as the flag is no longer on exhibition.

GIRL AND SAILOR ARE SENT BACK HOME

H., were taken back to Portsmouth today by Deputy Marshal George H. Drake of that city, the man charged with abduction and the girl with being a runaway.

Chief Inspector John S. Tobin arrested the couple here Monday night. They left Portsmouth, Sunday night, arriving in Newport Monday morning and had been stopping at a boarding house.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

IT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE TO HAIR

You can turn gray faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous, and almost over night if you'll get a bottle of "Weych's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Weych's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

PARK SQUARE THEATRE

The universal alarum of widows, grass, and otherwise, is in no way diminished in that enjoyed in its own field by "The Grass Widow," the musical comedy which has made an instant emphatic hit at the Park Square Theatre, Boston. Coming direct from Philadelphia where it was first shown, it was heralded as the brightest musical offering of the season. When Boston saw it in town the testimony of those who attended here out even in magnificent measure the good things that were said of it.

Written by Charles Pollack and Remond Wolf, two collaborators who are master hands at musical comedy writing and with the music composed by Louis A. Hirsch, whose credit are so many song hits, the comedy had everything in its favor. With the cast supplied by Madison Corey, the producer, and the magnificent dressing he has given it in the way of scenery and costuming, there is formed a notable addition to the musical comedy stage which will go to the furthest extent in providing amusement for the music and comedy lover.

PROGRESS ON DETECTING SUBMARINES

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 13.—Important progress in the detection and destruction of submarines was announced by Secretary Daniels in discussion of the many thousands of inventions offered for the government's consideration. He said that by persistent hunting on the part of the destroyers, the efficiency of submarines depend upon their speed.

The story of the comedy concerns a pretty little waitress at a French railway station who in plique accepts the bugbear proprietor and goes with him to have a civil ceremony performed. But in France a religious ceremony is required in order to make the marriage binding and ere this was performed her sweetheart returns and events that he is still true. She runs away from the old man, and the later designs of the two lovers to get rid of the hindrance to their happiness and allow their union provides the further action of the comedy.

The matinees will be given on Wednesdays and Saturdays with an extra matinee Thanksgiving day, seats for which are on sale. Mail orders will be carefully attended to, which must include the 10 per cent war tax and an addressed, stamped envelope.

POLICE BOARD MEETS WOMEN OF CIVIC ASSO.

Liquor and Young Girls the Important Subject Presented by Social Committee.

The police board conducted a special meeting on Tuesday evening called by the board by request made in a communication by the social committee of the Civic Association. Mrs. Mary I. Wood, Dr. Boger, Miss Martha Kimball, Mrs. Arthur Locke, Miss Susan Borthwick and Miss Carrie Hull as the committee, were present and talked over the conditions of the city relative to liquor and young girls.

The women stated that they were not there with any complaint against the board or the police department in general but to ask the board to be as active in the future as in the past on the matters in question. The board stated that it would act mutually with the Civic committee on anything for the betterment of the city and any complaints made by the association or individuals would be quietly and properly considered.

The members of the board did considerable questioning of the social committee and were of the opinion that the Civic League had brought nothing to their attention other than what the commission is now working on and has been watching for some time.

The social committee was strong on the matter of young girls on the streets and the police board made it plain that the officers have done, and are still doing all they possibly can in looking after the young women in this respect.

PRETTY WEDDING AT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Miss Mary Sullivan of New York Becomes Bride of Portsmouth Man.

One of the prettiest weddings which has taken place for some time occurred at the Church of the Immaculate Conception at 9 o'clock this morning when Miss Mollie N. Sullivan of New York was united in marriage to Dennis J. Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kelley of Cass street.

The bride wore a very pretty gown of tulle and lace with tulle hat trimmed with blue. She carried white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Susan Fitzgerald of Boston, who wore a similar gown and carried lavender caryophyllus. The best man was Joseph Kelley, brother of the groom. Rev. D. Alex. Sullivan, P. R., performed the ceremony and celebrated nuptial mass following the same. The musical portion of the service was rendered by a quartet from the senior choir of the church.

A reception and repast followed at the home of the groom's parents, 110 Cass street, attended by the immediate families of the contracting parties.

Both bride and groom were the recipients of a handsome and costly collection of wedding gifts.

They will enjoy a short wedding trip to New York and other points of interest and on their return will reside in a newly furnished home on Union street.

The groom is an employee of the Morley Button Company. The bride has for several years been employed with the J. T. Coolidge family at Little Harbor and Boston and is highly esteemed among her many young friends and associates in both cities. The couple received an outpouring of congratulations and take with them the good wishes for a long, prosperous, and happy wedded life.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. W. C. Henderson, Anna Henderson and Mrs. John Benson of Brooklyn.
